

THE DAILY APPEAL.

FRIDAY MORNING.....DECEMBER 3, 1855.

Port of Memphis.

River News.

The river continues to fall. There was settling, mostly of remark, transpiring at the port.

Railway Receipts.—The Mississippi and Tennessee have received for the month of November, for freight and passengers, the sum of $22,630.25.

The Wounded.—We find that he may not survive his wound. The girl, Sophie Parker, still lies paralyzed, and in a hopeless condition.

REAL ESTATE.—Gates, the prince of auctioneers and insulators, posted, made a sale, yesterday, of eight lots of urban property, situated at the south of the city, between Col. Williamson's and Dr. Walker's property; it brought an average of ten dollars a foot, or at the rate of fifteen hundred dollars an acre.

Nor a Roway.—A. H. Nuttall wishes us to say that he is no rowdy, though he had the misfortune to be so called, accidentally, while in legal, for the first time, in this city. In that difficulty, he bristled neither either nor horse-knife, as his witlessness before the Recorder proved.

Criminal Court.—In this court yesterday the witnesses for the prosecution of Beckons for stealing, were all examined, and this morning they for the defense will be commenced with the Grand Jury returned true bills against the following persons charged with larceny: Mr. O'Malley, Joseph Best and Fowtham's wife.

The JUDGE FOR THE ENTRE.—Mr. Downey, of the Superior, and Judge McRae, of the Criminal Court, were yesterday charged before the Recorder with having to their possession concealed weapons. The reporter was fined fifteen dollars, and the Criminal Judge twenty-five. The case was submitted by both parties without trial.

Assisted.—Officer Witt yesterday arrested S. Linstoros, a Russian, who, with two others, pretenders, obtained from Brown & Bros., of New Orleans, a quantity of guns on false pretenses. He was also charged of counterfeiting money. He was placed in jail to await a requisition from the Governor of Arkansas.

The ANIMALS.—Under the auspices of Col. Warren, the gallant rival of Ranch in skill as a "showman," the Dogs, Monkeys, and Goats, forming Signs' Donkey's Company, will appear in this city in a few days, being exhibited at the Standard & Royal's establishment. Dogs, monkeys, and canary parrots, and a dog balloon exhibition will be some of the amazing objects on exhibition. R. S. Driggs, Esq., the clever agent of the troupe, is in this city making preparations.

ARMED AND COTCHED.—At the criminal court yesterday, Mr. Kelly, who was fined ten dollars for fighting, managed to break a pane of glass in the upper part of the window of the lockup, where he was confined, and escaped by it. The clever Officer Savary, whose presence was required to account for the disappearance of his companion, was also present, and it is said that this is another care effected by our police.

We still record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true.
